Redmond Citizens Prepare for the Intelligence Era

By REDI Staff | Apr 19, 2024

REDI recently hosted 282 guests at the Middle Sister Conference Center at its Annual Luncheon. The event featured an economic update from Business Oregon Economist, Damon Runberg and REDI Director Steve Curley. Futurist and AI Expert, Steve Brown presented the Keynote address. Part of REDI's objectives in building community prosperity is to hold events like this to cultivate learning, provide networking opportunities, have fun, and spur connections that build business and personal relationships which help make... ## Looking to the Future with COCC

By Courtney Cobb - REDI Board Member | Apr 19, 2024

Economic development is a team sport. Redmond Economic Development, Inc. prides itself on working with local businesses, government, and colleges. This month, we are excited to get to know John J. Graham, Jr. through an informal Q&A session. John is the new Executive Director of the Center for Business, Industry, and Professional Development at Central Oregon Community College.
