The "Hub" of Central Oregon's Expansion

By REDI Staff | Dec 31, 2019

One may ask himself, "Where is all this traffic coming from?" "Why is the line at the drive-thru getting longer during my morning coffee run?" Redmond's population is poised to grow to approximately 50,000 residents by the year 2040. With a newly renovated hotel, an index showing 18% of Deschutes County's job growth over one year, and a well thought out strategic plan for commercial and industrial development; It isn't any wonder why Redmond is playing a key role in Central Oregon's expansion. REDI President... Read More

Why Enterprise Zones Matter

By REDI Staff | Dec 17, 2019

REDI is in the process of renewing its Enterprise Zone program with the State of Oregon for the Greater Redmond area. This program, established by State Legislature in 1975, has been a significant tool in an economic developer's toolbox ever since.
